Not only that, but our Quality Assured teaching has won many awards and accolades. And, our fees are lower than the rest of the UK, which will help you to budget for your year with us.

A Programme that works for you
SERC's International Foundation Programme has been specially designed to bridge the gap between school or college and an undergraduate degree at one of the UK's universities. Combine English Language with your choice of subject and study skills to help you with assessments.

An inspiring location

Northern Ireland is Lonely Planets Number 1 "must visit" location for 2018 offering a culturally diverse experience with a unique history and vibrant student scene.
